No. 43-Pres./60.—The President is pleased to approve the award of the ASHOKA CHAKRA, Class II, for conspicuous gallantry to:—

No. 44786 JEMADAR BHAGAT BAHADUR GURUNG, 4th Battalion, Assam Rifles.

Effective date of award—4th February, 1960

On the 4th February, 1960 Jemadar Bhagat Bahadur Gurung was ordered to proceed to Jessami Post. His party consisting of himself and four Riflemen (including two Drivers) were moving in two jeeps. He and two of the Riflemen were in the rear jeep. When 3½ miles from Ukhrul the party came under heavy fire from Naga hostiles at a point where the road passes through a thickly wooded area and there are sharp bends. The two jeeps were out of sight of each other. The hostiles, who numbered about 150, opened fire with light machine guns and 303 Service Rifles from all directions. Jemadar Bhagat Bahadur Gurung calmly ordered the driver to stop the jeep and fired back on the hostiles with his steel gun. He also encouraged the other two Riflemen to use their weapons. When his own weapon stopped firing he took a rifle from one of them and went forward to collect the other two Riflemen from the forward jeep. On reaching the bend of the road, he found a number of Naga hostiles surrounding the vehicle. He killed three of them and drove the others into the jungle. He could not however, find the two Riflemen and, therefore, returned to his own jeep and continued firing on the hostiles. Noticing a group of them firing from a position nearby he threw a hand grenade and silenced them. After this the hostiles fled in disorder having suffered heavy casualties.

Jemadar Bhagat Bahadur Gurung exhibited high qualities of leadership and great courage. It was undoubtedly due to his bold action that the occupants of his jeep were not killed and both the vehicles were saved.

No. 44-Pres./60.—The President is pleased to approve the award of the ASHOKA CHAKRA, Class III, to the under-mentioned personnel for gallantry:—

1. No. 44161 JEMADAR PURNA BAHADUR GURUNG, 4th Battalion, Assam Rifles.

Effective date of award—30th January, 1960

On receipt of information that hostiles were in village Satudai, a patrol of 21 men led by Jemadar Purna Bahadur Gurung went there. The village was searched but nothing was found. The JCO, however, was convinced that the hostiles must be in the vicinity. On making enquiries he learned that the hostiles had moved to village Khupum Khullen to which he immediately proceeded. This village consists of about 100 houses and it was not possible for him to cover the whole of it. He, therefore, selected the most likely area in which the hostiles could be, and distributed his force into three parties to carry out the search. He himself with Havildar Kharka Bahadur Thapa and Rifleman Puranjee Sherpa moved through the centre searching the houses. On looking into one of the houses he found the hostiles were there. With Rifleman Puranjee Sherpa he entered the house and engaged them in hand to hand combat, killing two of them. There were in all 13 hostiles and 10 of them were killed and 3 captured by his patrol. A number of arms and a quantity of ammunition were also recovered.

Jemadar Purna Bahadur Gurung displayed initiative and personal courage of a high order in this operation.

2. No. 46954 Rifleman PURANJEE SHERPA, 4th Battalion, Assam Rifles.

Effective date of award—30th January, 1960

On the 30th January, 1960, Rifleman Puranjee Sherpa was a member of the patrol led by Jemadar Purna Bahadur Gurung. When village Khupum Khullen was being searched, Rifleman Puranjee Sherpa saw a group of hostiles collected in a hut who were preparing to attack the patrol party. Without regard for his personal safety, Rifleman Puranjee Sherpa went into the hut and engaged the hostiles in hand to hand combat. He killed two of the total of 10 hostiles accounted for in this operation. His gallant action resulted in creating confusion among the hostiles who fled in disorder. But for it the hostiles would undoubtedly have been able to inflict casualties on the patrol and make their escape.

No. 45-Pres./60.—The President is pleased to approve the award of the "SENA MEDAL"/"Army Medal" to the under-mentioned personnel for acts of exceptional devotion to duty and courage:

1. Major KRISHNA MARUTI DESHMUKH (IC-2838), The Punjab Regiment (Posthumous).

Effective date of award—August, 1958

In August 1958, Major K. M. Deshmukh led a party of officers on a reconnaissance of a difficult region near the North Eastern Border which involved traversing some 350 miles of rugged country and crossing high mountain ranges. Trying weather and continuous physical hardship, added to the responsibility of leading a hazardous operation, left him completely exhausted and he was forced to rest. In spite of a severe cough he set out again and insisted on carrying out the task. On the completion of the reconnaissance he developed broncho-pneumonia as a result of which he died.

Throughout the operation, Major Deshmukh displayed courage, leadership and a high sense of duty in the performance of which he sacrificed his life.

2. Captain JAWHAR KANTI DEB (IC-7651), Army Ordnance Corps.

Effective date of award—24th February 1958

On 24th February 1958 at about 0815 hours a disastrous explosion of gun ammunition and other high explosives took place at the Ordnance Railway siding at Pathankot. A huge fire broke out and started spreading and there was grave danger of further explosions.

At this critical juncture, Captain J. K. Deb, in complete disregard of his own safety, entered the area which was littered with unexploded shells, and personally led the fire-fighting and rescue parties which successfully fought the fire, removed boxes of highly explosive ammunition and saved a number of lives.

Captain Deb's undaunted leadership, courage and devotion to duty in the face of danger, were in the best traditions of the Army.

No. 46-Pres./60.—The President is pleased to approve the award of the "NAO SENA MEDAL"/"NAVY MEDAL" to the undermentioned personnel for acts of exceptional devotion to duty and courage.

1. Senior Commissioned Officer Gunner (TAS) ANTHONY CHALLAYAN.

Effective date of award—September, 1959

In September 1959 Commissioned Gunner (TAS) A. Chellayan was a member of a Naval Diving team, which was engaged in the very difficult and hazardous task of choking the right diversion tunnel of Bhakra Dam. By dint of courage, personal example and outstanding leadership, he, with the other members of the team accomplished the task, despite the terrifying risk of being trapped in under water obstacles due to heavy currents. Earlier he had distinguished himself in other similar operations. The leadership and courage shown by him in these hazardous operations have been in the best traditions of the Navy.

2. Leading Seaman Lal Bahadur Misra (No. 61782).

Effective date of award—September, 1959

In September 1959 Leading Seaman Misra, member of a Naval Diving team, displayed outstanding bravery and undaunted courage during the diving operations at Bhakra Dam in connection with the closing of the right diversion tunnel which involved considerable risk. Earlier he had taken a leading part in similar operations at Tungbhadra Dam. His courage and skill have been in keeping with the best traditions of the Navy.

No. 47-Pres./60.—The President is pleased to approve the award of the "VAYU SENA MEDAL"/"Air Force Medal" to the undermentioned personnel for acts of exceptional devotion to duty and courage:

1. Flight Lieutenant KRISHNA NOEL NATARAJAN (No. 4721), No. 12(T) Squadron, Indian Air Force.

Effective date of award—29th April, 1960

On the 29th April, 1960 Flight Lieutenant K. N. Natarajan displayed presence of mind, devotion to duty and airmanship of a high order when the aircraft under his command which was in flight over most difficult mountainous terrain experienced complete loss of power in one engine. He manipulated the aircraft with cool courage and skill, made a successful single-engine landing and saved the crew and the aircraft. His courage and airmanship were a source of inspiration to his comrades.

2. Flying Officer SUNIL KUMAR CHOPRA (No. 5124), No. 43 Squadron, Indian Air Force.

Effective date of the award—29th October, 1959

On the 29th October, 1959 Flying Officer Chopra displayed great presence of mind in skillfully manoeuvring a Dakota aircraft of which one engine had to be feathered when in flight over most difficult mountain terrain. Although the aircraft was continuously losing height he managed to land it safely and thus saved the crew and the aircraft from certain disaster. His courage and skill when faced with a dangerous situation were in the best traditions of the Air Force.

3. Sergeant ASHUTOSH GHOSH (No. 38759), No. 1 Team, Medical Paratroopers' Flight, Indian Air Force.

Effective date of award—29th August, 1959

On the 29th August, 1959, Sergeant Ghosh volunteered to be dropped at great personal risk into a very small and dangerous dropping zone in a remote area in the midst of thick jungle where there were unpredictable cross-currents of wind. His action fulfilled a pressing operational necessity. The courage and skill shown by him in the face of such hazards were in the best traditions of the Air Force.
